

Women in arbitration and international law

Tales from the front line

Breakfast event

Come and join us for a relaxed breakfast at

25hours Hotel Vienna at MuseumsQuartier
Lerchenfelder Straße 1-3 1070 Vienna

Saturday 21 October 2017 at 10am to discuss the role of women in arbitration and international law.

Please register or address any questions to Katharina Planner.

E events.vienna@freshfields.com

T +43 1 515 15 380

We are honoured to welcome Rashda Rana SC, Arbitral Women, as our keynote speaker.

Our panel of renowned practitioners includes: Francesca Mazza,
Secretary General, German Institution of Arbitration (DIS), Ulrike Gantenberg, Partner, Heuking Kühn Lüer Wojtek, Düsseldorf, and Jennifer Younan, Partner, Shearman & Sterling, Paris, as well as our special guest Natalie Berthier-Ortmann, Individual Leadership Facilitator.

The panel will be moderated by Niamh Leinwather, Principal Associate, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Vienna.

These prominent women will offer personal experiences, recounting challenges they have faced and offering thoughts on how gender parity in arbitration can best be achieved.

Questions are welcome – expect a lively and fruitful discussion.

Tales from the front line

Breakfast event

Programme
09.30	Registration and breakfast
10.15	Welcome
	Moritz Keller, Counsel and Head of the International Arbitration Group, Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Vienna
10.20	ERA Pledge update
	Patrizia Netal, Partner at Knoetzl, Vienna, and Alice Fremuth-Wolf, Deputy Secretary General of the Vienna International Arbitral Centre (VIAC): the Austrian Steering Committee members of the Equal Representation in Arbitration Pledge
10.40	Panel discussion
	Chair: Niamh Leinwather, Principal Associate at Freshfields Bruckhaus Deringer, Vienna. Speakers: Francesca Mazza, Secretary General of the German Institution of Arbitration (DIS), Ulrike Gantenburg, Partner at Heuking Kühn Lüer Wojtek, Düsseldorf, Jennifer Younan, Partner at Shearman & Sterling, Paris, and Nathalie Berthier-Ortmann, Individual Leadership Facilitator
12.15	Q&A
12.50	Keynote speech - How close are women to breaking through the glass ceiling?
	Rashda Rana SC, Arbitral Women
13.00	End